Alternate Lay Representation

- 6 Every Pastoral Charge, and Development District shall elect for each Lay Representative an Alternate Lay Representative to the Diocesan Synod, who shall hold office in the same manner as do the Alternate Lay Representatives to the Provincial Synod.

Qualifications of Lay Representatives

- 7 Every Lay Representative or Alternate Lay Representative shall be of the age of eighteen years or upwards, shall be a Communicant and shall be a member of the Vestry of the Pastoral Charge or Development District of which he/she is to be elected as a representative.

Election of Lay Representatives

- 8 In all Pastoral Charges, lay representatives to Synod shall be elected annually, either at the annual Vestry, or at a meeting of Communicants held not later than the 1st July, provided that there are at least three Communicants present qualified to vote at such a meeting. If the minimum number is not present the meeting shall adjourn to another day. If no election takes place, the Pastoral Charge shall lose its rights for that Session of the Synod. The place of such meeting shall be determined by the Rector, or if there be no Rector, then by the Archdeacon. Notice of such meeting shall be given in every Church and Chapel in the Pastoral Charge not less than seven days before the meeting is held.

Casual Vacancies among Lay Representatives

- 9 Every Lay Representative shall continue in office until the next annual election. In the case of a vacancy occurring by reason of the death of any such officer, or his/her removal from the Diocese, or for any other cause deemed sufficient by the Bishop, the vacancy shall be filled by the first available alternative at the time of such vacancy occurring. If there be no available alternative representative to fill the vacancy, a meeting of communicants may be summoned to appoint a successor to such office, who shall remain in office until the next annual election. No Layperson shall represent more than one Parish.

Return of Elections

- 10 The Chairperson of every meeting of Communicants at which a Lay Representative or Alternate Lay Representative is elected shall forthwith forward the name in full, and the address of such Lay Representative or Alternate Lay Representative to the Secretary of the Synod care of the Diocesan Secretary, with a certificate that they are duly qualified.

Compilation of Synod Roll

- 11 The Synod Secretary shall inscribe on the Synod Roll the names of the Primary representatives of each Parish, unless the Rector of any Parish shall have handed in to him/her a written certificate that the Bishop has authorised the substitution of an Alternate Representative before calling of the Roll.

Synod Agenda Paper

- 13 An Agenda paper shall be prepared under the direction of the Bishop, which shall be circulated to the members of Synod at least twenty-one days before the meeting of Synod. It shall contain all notices required in terms of the Constitution and Canons of the ACSA, all other draft resolutions, of which six weeks notice shall have been given to the Bishop, the customary reports, the estimates of Diocesan Revenue and Expenditure for the ensuing year, and such other matters as the Bishop desires to lay before Synod. Resolutions, of which notice has not been given as aforesaid, shall only be moved with the consent of Synod.

Order of Proceedings

- 14 The Synod shall be opened with a celebration of the Holy Communion. After the Nicene Creed a Synod Roll, previously prepared by the Synod Secretary under the direction of the Bishop, shall be called, and if one third of the members answer to their names, the Bishop shall declare the Synod duly constituted, and shall at that time or any later time during the Session of Synod, if he/she thinks fit, deliver an address or charge to the Synod, or preach or cause to be preached a sermon.

Prolocutor

- 15 If there be no Dean, the members present shall then elect a Priest to be Prolocutor, who shall take the chair of the Synod in the absence of the Bishop.

Synod Secretaries

- 16 Synod shall from time to time, as occasion may require, elect a Synod Secretary and an Assistant Secretary, who shall hold office at the pleasure of Synod. When Synod is not in session, the functions of the Synod Secretariat shall be performed by the Diocesan Secretary and his/her staff.

Houses of Synod

- 17 The three Orders or Houses of which the Synod consists, viz. the Laity, Clergy and Bishops, shall usually sit, debate and vote together, but at any time a vote by Orders may be demanded by any member and the vote of each Order shall then be taken separately in the sequence of Laity, Clergy and Bishops.
